Party affiliation: Minnesota law requires that certain election duties be performed by two judges of different political parties. Statute also requires that no more than half of the election judges assigned in a precinct may be members of the same political party. Minnesota law defines member as an individual who supports the general principles of that party's constitution, voted for the majority of that party's candidates in the last general election, or intends to vote for a majority of that party's candidates in the next election.
Upon application, election judge applicants are required to declare party affiliation (student judges leave blank):
□ DFL □ Republican
☐ Legal Marijuana Now
□ Not affiliated □ Other:

Time off from employment to serve
If you are appointed to serve as an election judge, state law allows you to be absent from work without penalty if you

If you are appointed to serve as an election judge, state law allows you to be absent from work without penalty if you have given your employer at least 20 days' notice. The written request must be accompanied by a certification letter from the city clerk that details your hourly rate of pay and the hours you will serve. Your employer may reduce your pay by the amount that you are paid by the city. If your employer requires you to provide a certification letter from the city, please check the "I require an employer certificate..." box above.

Time off from school to serve for the General Election on Nov. 5, 2024

Students ages 16 or 17 who are U.S. citizens in good academic standing at a Minnesota high school (or home schooled) and who reside in Hennepin County or an adjacent county are eligible to be appointed as a student trainee election judge without party affiliation. Such a student may be excused from school during the hours that the student is serving as a student trainee election judge if the student submits a written request that is signed by the student's parent or guardian to be absent from school, along with a certificate from the city clerk stating the hours during which the student will serve as a student trainee election judge, to the principal of the school at least 10 days prior to the election. Students cannot serve past 10 p.m.
